LOVE'S SPELL.

BY E. ANNA LEWIS. "Weep for the love that cannot change; Like some unholy spell, It hangs upon the life that loved,

So vainly, and so well." Strange I should have loved the ever, Faithless, fickle as thou ark Stranger still, false one, that never Can I wrench thee from my heart. Scorn, like shaft shot from its quiver Which is dipped in fatal bane, And doth send death's icy shiver Through the heart and every vein;

Lone neglect, the stern decision That thy presence bids me flee; Wrong, and hate, and cold derision; These I all have born from thee, Till my brow in youth's fresh hour Is by clouds of grief o'ercast, And I'm with'ring like the flower

Over which sweeps the simoon's blast; Yet, with every kind emotion That can move the gentle breast, With all woman's deep devotion,

Still my heart, (that can be blest But while incense o'er thee breathing, Whence it only solace finds,) As the oak the ivy wreathing, Every tendrill round thee twines, Every thing thy impress beareth Hath the hallowed spell of thee: Look or smile of thine endeareth Meanest, vilest things to me;

Round the worthless thing thou art. Curse the memory that bringeth Image of thee to my heart, Oft I've sworn to dash the chalice, From my eager, thirsting lips, Where my soul will seek its solace, Though it only wormwood sips I have tried to cease this pining, Rouse my with'ring pride-but vain-

Yet I loathe my soul that clingeth

By some skilfull, deep designing Turn my love to cold disdain; But such efforts make thee dearer To her whom Live's Spell hath bound. Draw the fatal chord still nearer Round the heart thy scorn doth wound.

NIL DESPERANDUM.-While there is life there is hope, is an old adage, and it is sometimes curiously illustrated. Persons given up to die are often saved by the superior energy of a nurse, who has the superior energy of a nurse, who has hope she may keep off the king of terrors, for a time at least, by her superior determination. Old Major Dash, who won his brevet in the war of 1812, was suddenly taken down with cholera. It was at the time of its first appearance in this continent, and our physicians had very little experience. The Major sank rapidly, and a consultation was called. Sevol doctors, after putting their heads together, "came to the conclusion that the patient was fatally sick, past recovery." No one, however, would make the anthe case, turned to a young doctor present and said, "what is the report?" "That you can't live."

"Not a chance?" asked the Major with severity. "Yes," continued the young hopeful

-" just one chance in a hundred thousand, "Then, why the - don't you work away on that chance? "returned the Major, with a voice of thunder. The hint was taken, and the invincible soldier saved. The white hairs and the Chairs, Ottomans, &c.; Carpets and Curtains neatly invincible sword of this old soldier waved along the victorious lines of our troops in Mexico; but he at last had to satisfaction. yield to a foe, if not more courageous, yet more insatiable, and he now sleeps upon his native banks of the Hudson.

demand for Page Daop. VERNERAR, INDIANA, Oct. 8, 1864. J. L. Kirwell-Dear Mr: Bome three months ago, through the agency of Col Smith Miller, our representation in Congress, I had purchased of you, for the use of my school in Scotland, one dozen Bottles of Beech Drop or Cancer Proparation. I have a letter from my bottler, stating that the physician desires you to forward another dosen bottles. He thinks under its use the disease is arrested. I may add that my taker has tried every physician of distances to the cottlend and England, including Professors of the cottlend and Colleges, without relief. The disease was of these years standing, began in the right check, which is partially consumed. He was a sufferer with constant pain, which has entirely light him.

This case will give your preparation a popularity in Britain which no other medicine has. Direct to William Dick, Mag., Collydean, by Leelie Scotland, in care of Masers. Penfoed, Cary & Co., Druggists, N. York, who will seward it.

Mr. Fint is a man of great influence in his county, and will with pleasure communicate with any one in reference to his case. CAMEAYAY COURTY, MYSSOURI, July 13th, 1854. Dear Sir—With great pleasure I inform that your production of Beech Drop has accomplished for me what I therefore beyond the reach of human agency. For the last welve years I have been afflicted with corolla of a Common form. So extensive was the ulcers and so horrible my appearance that my case became notosious with all the Paculty in this and the adjoining counties—in act I had obtained the best medical aid in our wate, without any abstement of the disease. Except a friend I procured a half dozen bottles of your Besch Drep, after using it, so perfect was the cure, that hundred visited me.

My desire is to benefit my fellow man; with that purpose I beg all afflicted with Scrofula in any form Enclosed you will find an order from some friends for the preparation. Very truly, JNO. C. FLINT.

WINE.

MANUFACTURED FROM FRENCH GRAPES, JAMAICA GINGER, SEVILLE ORANGES, &c.—This delicious beverage becomes the greates iavorite wherever it is introduced. It is equally palatable, more wholesome, and not half the price of other foreign wines. Many physicians use it ex clusively, and recommend it to all troubled with Flatulency, Dyspepsia, Debility, Gramps, Diarrhoss and Dysentery. Persons subject to Chills, or living in districts where Ague prevails, find its occasional use a pleasant and admirable preventive. Mixed with a little cold water, it forms the most refreshing and wholesome cooling drink in warm weather that

Me. 127, Baltimore street, Baltimore, Md. ME estensible object of this institution is to place in the reach of individuals proper facilities for taining a thorough and practical mercantile edu sation. A young man can here obtain a more correct knowledge of general business matters in a few weeks than can be acquired in as many years in any one counting house.

The course of study embraces double-entry book keeping, and its adaptation to various departments of commerce and trade. Mercantile calculations taught according to the most approved methods.-Practical Penmanship, combining rapidity of execu-tion with beauty of construction. Lectures upon mercantile law, upon various important mercantile subjects, beside many other points necessary for a bcok-keeper or business man to understand. Time necessary for a student to complete the course varies from five to eight weeks. There being no vacation, applicants can enter at any time and attend both day and evening. Examinations are held at stated periods, and diplomas awarded to those who graduate. For terms, &c., write and have a circular for warded by mail.

COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS Relief in Five Minutes. TYLER'S COMPOUND GUM ARABIC SYRUP.

FIGHE increasing demand for this most pleasant, safe, and efficacious remedy for all pulmonary diseases, has enabled the proprietor to reduce the price so as to place it within the reach of all classes Its superiority over most similar preparations is attested by many eminent physicians who have been eye witnesses of its efficacy when the usual remedies have failed; also by thousand of our most respectable citizens who have used it in their families both as preventive and cure with never failing success for the last twenty years, during which period with very little aid from advertising, &c., it has gradually spread reputation over the whole Union. In cases of recent Colds, Coughs, Hoarseness, &c., it gives immediate relief, and generally cures in a day or two, without interfering with diet or business, or rendering the system more susceptible of Colds, in chronic cases, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Oroup, Bronchitis, Affections of the Lungs, and Consumption, it is always very b neficial. and seldom fails, when commenced in time to perfect a cure. Price 25 and 50 cents a bottle. Sold wholesale by Patterson & Nairn, Stott & Co.,
